

Tourists enjoy a day of fun at Doña Pilar

DOÑA Pilar Learning Center treated tourists from the Principality of Andorra with an array of Filipino dances and music last February 7.

The seven visitors, who visited the school, had the time of their lives watching Fiesta Filipiniana, which featured Filipino dances and music performed by the teachers and students. The school band also played Filipino ballads to the group, who also tried their hand with the Tinikling dance.

the state is a mountainous place between Southern France and Northern Spain.

Among the visitors was D. Vicent Lucas, nephew of Purification Rodriguez. A few years ago, Lucas donated an original letter of the Sultan of Sulu to the Spanish Governor General of the Philippines and an original Royal Decree by Carlos V of Spain, mentioning the Philippines under the reign of Spain to the Davao Museum.

The group toured other countries like Singapore and other parts of the country but chose to stay in Davao City.

The group enjoyed their stay in the city, especially the presentation prepared by the school for them. The group vows to return with other visitors in the future.

The group stayed for five days at the Paradise Island Park and Beach Resort in the Island Garden City of Samal. Andorra is the sixth smallest independent state in Europe. Located in the Eastern Pyrenees,

Chill out
SUN STAR LIFE & STYLE

